Nursing Challenges and Opportunities in Rapidly Changing Healthcare

WELCOME

It is my pleasure and honor to invite you to the 2017 International Conference of the Research Institute of Nursing Science to be held at Pusan National University in Korea. The theme of the conference is "Nursing Challenges and Opportunities in the Rapidly Changing Healthcare." This international conference will provide global perspectives on nursing care using technology by prominent nursing scientists who are from diverse countries, including the USA, Singapore, Taiwan, and Korea.

The need for innovative solutions has been greater than ever before as healthcare environments globally struggle to provide equitable, safe, and effective health services while controlling costs at the same time. Nursing innovations are vital in the efforts to address current and future global health challenges. Innovation can apply not only to tools, technologies, and processes, but also to the ways that organizations or nurses behave, work, or act.

I wish you a fruitful day through interesting and stimulating discussions and exchanges, which we can together envisage the future of nursing.

Thank you.
